

William Blake's Cottage is Yours – If You've ever Sung 'Jerusalem'

The fund raising appeal to acquire William Blake's Cottage in Felpham (on the West Sussex coast) and turn it into a centre for the Imagination continues.

The Cottage will be a home for artists, authors, thinkers, and anyone who believes with Blake that 'Execution is the Chariot of Genius'.

The Blake Society has been given the legal option to purchase the Cottage where Blake wrote the words to the hymn 'Jerusalem'.

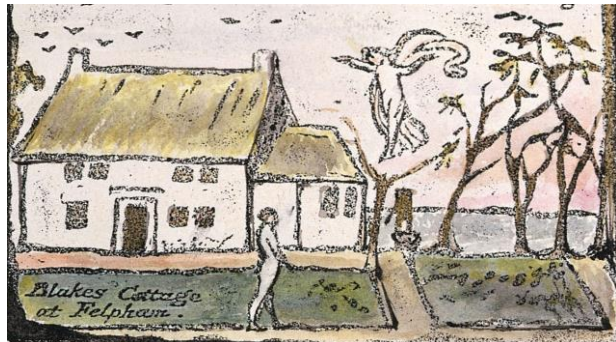

We want to open its doors to you and celebrate Blake's legacy through creating a home for the imagination. Blake is one of England's greatest geniuses whose influence on the arts, poetry and thought is still felt around the globe as a transformative force. Yet he still does not have a home in this 'green and pleasant land'.

We will change that.

If you've ever sung 'Jerusalem' you can own the Cottage: Donate £1 by texting FEET111 to 70070 on a UK mobile phone. (Or you can make a more generous donation by selecting any number between 1 and 9 for the last digit, eg FEET117 donates £7 pounds.)

Help us make Blake's Visionary Home belong to all.
